

Farm Sanctuary's Walk for Farm Animals

Portland, Maine

September 27, 2008 • Registration 10:00 a.m., Walk 10:30 a.m.
Lincoln Park

Put on your walking shoes and take steps toward compassion for farm animals today!

Join our 2008 Walk for Farm Animals and help raise funds for and awareness about Farm Sanctuary's vital rescue, education and advocacy efforts for farm animals in need. To register for the event or make a pledge of support, contact the local Walk coordinator below. A $15 pre-registration fee entitles you to a Walk T-shirt. Reserve your shirt by pre-registering no later than three weeks prior to the event. Walk day registration costs $20.

Local Walk Coordinators:

Laurie Grant and Gilbert Doughty

Email: portland-maine@walkforfarmanimals.org

Phone: 207-879-9235

Learn more today at farmsanctuary.org or walkforfarmanimals.org!

Cupid

Cupid fell from a transport truck onto a California freeway and was later discovered in an orchard by animal control officers. From the tag on his ear, the officers determined that he was likely acquired at a nearby auction and would have been slaughtered for veal – a fate common among male dairy calves of no use to the industry. Now safe at Farm Sanctuary, Cupid has everyone swooning over the heart shape on his forehead and his irresistible bovine charm.

farmsanctuary
rescue • education • advocacy